

Dear sirs,

After watching the Iraq war and coverage of the Bush administration I feel that we are only told one side of the story. America must have a free and independent media to tell both sides of each story. if the media is controlled by a few giants then our information is going to be severely limited. I feel we may have the beginnings of a giant propoganda machine.

Thank You,
Randy Ranes